

The Ghana Meteorological Agency (GMA) exists to provide efficient and reliable meteorological information by collecting, processing, archiving Analysing and dissemination of findings/meteorological information to end users.

This website seeks to provide our clients and other stakeholders/clients more information and to facilitate speedier or faster transaction of business in a transparent manner. It is also designed to serve as a guide and also to publicly demonstrate the Agency's commitment to service delivery standards as stated in this document.

Mission Statement

To provide timely, accurate and cost-effective weather and climate services by collecting, processing, archiving and disseminating meteorological information to support socio-economic development of Ghana, with special regard to the protection of life and property and safeguarding the environment.

Vision Statement

The Agency's vision is a modern state-of-art meteorological establishment applying cutting edge technology to provide accurate meteorological information.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

We provide:

- Public weather forecast on daily basis (national weather) on radio and television
- Collect, process, store and disseminate meteorological information
- Research and publications
- Undertake collaborative work with relevant agencies (Agricultural, Water resources, Aviation, Energy, Adaptation programmes, etc).
- Provide expert advice on Climate issues
- Provide meteorological information to meet international set standards
- Render other meteorological services on routine/requests.

OUR SERVICES

- General
- Aeronautical
- Maritime