

The Engineering and Technical Services Division is responsible for the general maintenance, installation, calibration and repairs of meteorological equipment and instruments of GMet.