SUMMARY: In the early hours of the morning, mostly cloudy weather is expected for most parts of the country amidst misty and foggy conditions over the coast, forest and mountainous regions. However, cases of slight to moderate rains are anticipated to affect parts of the coastline and the in-land areas of the country. As the day progresses, mostly sunny conditions will prevail across the country with the likelihood of thunderstorms or rain over parts of the middle, and transition sectors from late afternoon into the evening hours.
