SUMMARY: This morning, some coastal, forest, and hilly areas in southern Ghana may experience mist or fog with slight rain. As the day progresses, sunny conditions with occasional cloud cover will persist. Later from the afternoon into the evening hours, a few places along the coast, middle and transition sectors are likely to experience thunderstorms or rain. In the northern half, the weather will remain mostly sunny during the day, with cases of isolated thunderstorms and rain over few places later in the evening.
