SUMMARY: This morning, misty or foggy conditions will form over parts of the coastal, mountainous and forest belts amidst mostly cloudy conditions over southern Ghana. Rainfall is also anticipated over some places within the coastal and inland areas at various times from this morning into the early afternoon hours. As the day progresses, mostly cloudy conditions with occasional sunshine will dominate southern Ghana, while the northern sector experiences intervals of sun and clouds. However, from late afternoon into the evening, thunderstorms with rain are expected to affect parts of the middle, transition and northern sectors.
