SUMMARY: Mist and fog patches are expected to form over the coastal, forest and mountainous places during the early hours of the morning amidst mostly cloudy conditions. A few places within the coastal sector are also likely to experience intermittent slight to moderate rain. As the day progresses into the afternoon, breaks of sunshine are anticipated over southern Ghana while northern Ghana will experience mostly sunny weather with occasional cloud cover. However, rain with or without thunder is expected over parts of the middle, transition, and northern sectors from the afternoon into the evening.
