SUMMARY: Mist or fog patches will form over parts of the coast, forest and mountainous areas during the early hours of the day amidst mostly cloudy conditions. A few places within southern Ghana may also experience slight rain or drizzle from this morning and the afternoon. Sunny weather with occasional cloudiness will prevail over parts of the country as the day progresses. However, from afternoon into the evening, cases of thunderstorms or rain are likely to affect parts of the middle, transition and northern sectors.

NB: Relatively cool night and early morning temperatures are expected across the country.
