SUMMARY: With reference to the weather warning and evening forecast issued earlier, thunderstorms with rain, amid cloudy conditions, will continue to affect some places within the middle, transition and northern sectors from midnight into the early hours of tomorrow. There is also a chance of slight rain over a few places along the coastline. As the day progresses, periods of sunshine and cloudiness will dominate most parts of the country, with rainfall activities possible over a few places within the middle and transition sectors.

NB: Early morning and night temperatures are expected to increase gradually across the country.
