18HOUR FORECAST FOR GHANA VALID FROM 6 AM, 02/10/2026

SUMMARY: Mist or fog patches are likely to form over some localities along the coast, hilly and forest belt during the early morning hours, which may affect visibility. Mostly cloudy conditions giving way to sunshine with occasional cloudiness are expected across most places in the country as the day progresses. However, from late afternoon into the evening, a few areas in the transition and northern sectors of the country may experience thunderstorms or rain.
