

24-HOUR FORECAST FOR GHANA VALID FROM 6AM TODAY

SUMMARY: The weather across the country will remain dry and hazy, with varying intensities. In the early morning, mist and fog patches will form over the southern half. Later in the day, localized thundery showers are expected in some coastal and inland areas. Visibility during the forecast period is projected to range between 4000 meters and 9000 meters.

CAUTION!

1. Naked fires should be handled cautiously to prevent any form of fire outbreak due to the dryness in most parts of the country.
2. Motorists are advised to use fog lights and drive within appropriate speed limits due to deteriorated visibility.
