

24-HOUR FORECAST FOR GHANA VALID FROM 6AM TODAY

SUMMARY: The morning is expected to be partly cloudy with mist or fog patches, especially over forest and mountainous areas in southern Ghana. As the day progresses, breaks of sunshine are anticipated for most areas, though localized thundery showers may develop in the late afternoon, particularly over the west coast, slightly north of the coastline and middle belts. In the northern sector, the upper regions are expected to be slightly hazy, with visibility between 6000 meters and 9000 meters.
