GMet Forecast Office

24-HOUR FORECAST FOR GHANA VALID FROM 6AM TODAY

SUMMARY: For most parts of the forecast period, variable cloud cover is expected across the country. Mist or fog patches will form over some coastal and forest areas in the early morning hours, while a few places in the extreme north and inland areas of the coast may experience light to moderate rainfall. Later in the day, from the afternoon hours into the evening, isolated thunderstorms are expected in parts of the middle, transition and northern Ghana.
