GMet Forecast Office

24-HOUR FORECAST FOR GHANA
VALID FROM 6AM TODAY

SUMMARY: Generally, places within southern Ghana will be dominated by partly cloudy weather with misty conditions over hilly and forest areas this morning. In contrast, cloudiness will continue to prevail over the northern sector amidst slight to moderate thunderstorms or rain over some portions. As the day unfolds, sunny periods are expected to prevail across all sectors during the afternoon hours with few cases of thunderstorms or rain activities later in the day over the coast, middle and transition and northern belts.
