Gmet Forecast Office

24-HOUR FORECAST FOR GHANA VALID FROM 6 PM, 06/11/2025

SUMMARY: Mostly cloudy conditions are anticipated across the country this evening. The current thunder and rain clouds within the forest and transition belt are likely to persist and expand to more areas producing thunderstorms or rain of varying intensities. Mist or fog patches are expected to develop and reduce visibility within the forest and high ground places of southern Ghana during the early hours of tomorrow.
