SUMMARY: With the exception of the west coast which is expected to be affected by cloudiness and rainy conditions early this afternoon, the remaining areas within southern Ghana will experience sunny conditions with possible showers over some few places in the Greater Accra region. From late afternoon into the evening hours some places within the middle and transition sectors (Koforidua, Akim Oda, Tarkwa, Jasikan and their surroundings) are anticipated to have thunderstorms with or without rain. Over the Northern sector, fairly dry, hot and sunny weather will be experienced during the afternoon hours with few clouds expected in the evening and night.
