Northern	20	37

SUMMARY: Mist or fog patches are expected to form this morning, reducing visibility over parts of the coast, forest and mountainous areas. As the day unfolds, generally fair and sunny conditions will prevail across the country, with the northern sector experiencing fairly dry and slightly hazy weather throughout the forecast period. However, localised thunderstorms or rain are anticipated to affect parts of the coast, its immediate inland areas, and the forest zones from late afternoon into the evening.

NB: Relatively cool night and early morning temperatures are expected over the upper regions.
